STAT Dear [redacted]

Gus W. Weiss, Jr., a senior member of the White House staff, has written me conveying his compliments on your recent study on the long-term economic and political cycles in the industrial countries. His kind words confirm that you achieved your major goal with the paper -- to provoke thought and contribute to greater understanding of a complex question.

Many thanks.

Sincerely,

George Bush
Director

Dear Mr. Bush:

I would like to compliment [redacted] of the Office of Political Research for his recent paper on long-term economic and political cycles in the industrial countries. [redacted] paper is more speculative and theoretical than most intelligence products, but there is an audience here for this kind of work. I would encourage the Agency to address unconventional issues where your staff thinks appropriate.
